

For this project, I wanted to create a character which consists of simplistic shapes such as circles and squares but with original features. This would sit within the abstract section. I feel in this situation less is more and by giving the character interesting features, it should be eye catching.

The above characters are some examples I found that I could use as inspiration for both costumes and props.

